Songaia Co-Housing Community Garden	Bothell 22401 39th St. SE. Bothell, WA 98021	Members Only/ Foodbank	The garden began as a small organic garden plot in 1991 and has evolved into an important focus of our work towards sustainable community. In 2010 the community members took a field trip to the Bullock Family Permaculture Homestead on Orcas Island and then began to orient the garden development along Permaculture lines. We began studying and applying permaculture principles to the garden including shifting our orchard plantings into food forests and using permaculture techniques such as hugelkultur and keyhole designs. We donate a small amount of the food we grow to the local food banks. Because of our work to create self-sustaining food sources on our property, we have become involved in the local permaculture and organic agricultural movements.	425-481-8044	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> www.songaia.com 	Residents Only

St. Michael's Catholic Church (Garden of Abundance)	Snohomish 1512 Pine Ave Snohomish, WA	Church	The St. Michael Community Garden was started in 2009 as part of the SnoGrow program. SnoGrow is an initiative of churches of all denominations and garden Clubs in Snohomish who cooperate to grow produce for the food banks in the Community. The project at St. Michaels was initially funded by a grant from the Master Gardeners Association of Washington. A modest annual grant from the Archdiocese of Seattle "Rice Fund" is our only source of funding. The garden was also fortunate to have the fencing and arbor erected by Kevin Iverson as his Eagle Scott community project. All produce is donated to Snohomish Food Bank. On average, we produce 800-1200 lbs. each season.
